

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160. The NAB needs to realize that we live in a changing world, in which people have new choices from which to get their music and information. Instead of simply trying to knock off those who try to compete with them, they need to embrace American free enterprise. They need to compete with these new choices in the marketplace, not in the courtroom.